

Thank you for considering Murray Edwards College for your event.

Giving You Better Value

A completely revamped Day Delegate Rate.

As well as significantly reducing the price of our DDR, so it is more transparent and simply better value for you, we have also:

INCLUDED MORE

Not only have we included more equipment than ever before, we have added additional catering options too! So any meeting you hold at Murray Edwards College has that extra something special that enhances your delegate experience, without you having to sacrifice more of your budget on the venue.

These inclusions are in addition to the many already complimentary aspects that are included with any meeting held at Murray Edwards, so you won't find lots of hidden charges later.

BUILT MINIMUM NUMBERS BASED ON SET UP

Minimum numbers for day delegate rates are usually based on the maximum capacity of that room, which is often theatre style. However, this may not be your desired set up. At other venues you may be obliged to meet minimum numbers in this way or, because you are having a different set up style, you may not be able to take advantage of their DDR. Or you may even find yourself paying over the odds.

This is not in your best interest. So at Murray Edwards College, your minimum number is now based on the maximum number the room can hold in your desired set up.

Customers Come First

We believe in fair, clear pricing whether or not your event fits with our DDR. If your event does not meet minimum numbers, please use the individual prices on page 5, which are still competitive. You also still benefit from our "Always Complimentary" inclusions.

Placing our customers firmly at the forefront of our approach, combined with our consistent, reliable and friendly service, offers you excellent value for your event at this prestigious, central Cambridge venue.
