What is a “summer school”?

For the purposes of this package, a summer school is an organisation which arranges and facilitates supervised educational courses (at any time of year) for children or young adults.

We can cater for most dietary requirements if we are advised at least two weeks before your event. There may be a surcharge. All meals are prepared using the finest and freshest local produce and include seasonal herbs, vegetables and fruit from the College gardens wherever possible.

Prices are exclusive of VAT unless otherwise stated.

Please note, food is prepared in an environment where nuts are present.

PARTNERING WITH YOU TO CREATE SAFE, OUTSTANDING AND MEMORABLE EVENTS

Booking information for organisers:

- 🛡️ We will request that the 90% of your estimated total cost to be paid in advance of your event by an initial non-refundable deposit of 50% and two interim payments of 20% each. Payment dates may be agreed with the Events Manager. You will then be invoiced for the final amount after the event.
- 🛡️ You must complete and sign our booking form agreeing to our terms and conditions at the time of booking. Cancellation terms are clearly outlined in section 4 and are applicable to every booking. The College must be notified of amendments or cancellations in writing.
- 🛡️ If you believe your booking to be VAT exempt, you must complete the VAT exemption form on and provide any additional evidence requested by the form.
- 🛡️ You must advise us at the time of booking if males and females must be accommodated separately, alongside any other accommodation requirements.
- 🛡️ Rooming lists must be given on the template provided by your College contact. Lists provided in alternative templates will not be accepted.

Murray Edwards College has a long history of working with summer schools, so we understand that there can be challenges when working with a group of children or young adults. We work closely with organisers to plan a safe, well-organised, enjoyable time for students' that fits with the College, which remains a working environment year-round.

To safeguard this, we expect that school groups adhere to the following guidelines and those outlined in the Terms and Conditions:

- 🛡️ Have a minimum supervisor to student ratio of 1:10 and that students under 21 are supervised at all times while they are in College.
- 🛡️ The youngest age we will usually accommodate is 15 years'. Depending on supervision and references, younger groups may be considered.
- 🛡️ Have at least one supervisor bedroom per accommodation corridor.
- 🛡️ Do not permit students to consume alcohol or smoke while they are in residence on the College site.
- 🛡️ Complete individual Personal Emergency Evacuation (PEEP) Forms to ensure the safety of students with additional accessibility needs.
- 🛡️ Submit a valid public liability insurance certificate and risk assessments for all individual activities planned in College at least 1 month in advance of your arrival date.
- 🛡️ Complete risk assessments for all activities taking place in College.
- 🛡️ Ensure students stay within their allocated accommodation staircases and social areas in College.
- 🛡️ Ensure their students and staff are fully briefed on fire and health and safety procedures. Fire action plans are clearly displayed on the back of accommodation and meeting room doors.
- 🛡️ Enforce an 11:00pm curfew, unless an alternative agreement has been made in writing.

We can cater for most dietary requirements if we are advised at least two weeks before your event. There may be a surcharge. All meals are prepared using the finest and freshest local produce and include seasonal herbs, vegetables and fruit from the College gardens wherever possible.

Frequently Asked Questions

We will consider all requests providing we are given sufficient advance notice to plan.

A.V. equipment

To book any audio-visual equipment for your summer school, please contact our technician via email events@murrayedwards.cam.ac.uk

Bar

No matter their age, summer school students and supervisors do not have access to alcohol from the College whilst on College grounds and we ask that none is brought in. However, we can serve soft drinks from our bar on special evenings. Please see the current price list for hire rates.

Bed and breakfast

If you have guest speakers or teachers who wish to stay overnight, they can book B&B via our website <https://www.murrayedwardsevents.co.uk/bed-breakfast-cambridge/>

Bedroom types

En suite – has a private bathroom and toilet in the bedroom.

Standard – has shared bathroom facilities; usually 1 toilet per 2 bedrooms and 1 shower room per 2 bedrooms. Located on the same floor as the bedroom.

Behaviour

Please see section 9 of our terms and conditions, which outlines the behaviour standards expected during your stay. Please ensure these are circulated to students at the beginning of their stay and reaffirmed where necessary.

Cancellation

Summer schools cancelled less than 12 months before the event start date are subject to cancellation fees of 90% of the total estimated cost for accommodation and meeting rooms and 65% on food and beverage revenue.

If cancellation occurs more than 12 months before the event start date this will incur loss of deposit only.

Please see section 4 of our contract for further details of our cancellation policy.

Cambridge Experiences (and experiences further afield)

We would be happy to suggest some local activities to fit in with your agenda.

By train, Cambridge has great links to Northern cities, such as York and Manchester and is just

50 minutes from London

90 minutes from Norwich

120 minutes from Great Yarmouth (seaside town)

150 minutes from Oxford

Ceilidhs

The Dome is suitable for ceilidhs, depending on your numbers. Please discuss this with your event organiser.

Chapel

Murray Edwards does not have a chapel. Subject to availability, we can provide rooms for worship.

Common areas

The College bar is open all of the time and is an excellent common area, as it contains a television, Internet access, comfortable seating and vending machines. The bar must also be suitably supervised, as it is an area open to all guests of the College. If you would like to hire a private common area, please talk to your College contact.

Contact during your time here

A member of the team will look after your event whilst you are staying to ensure it runs smoothly. We like to keep in touch with you regularly, so please arrange with your event organiser the best way to do this in advance of your stay.

Coaches

Coaches for students can pull up on Huntingdon Road however, they must only be there whilst students alight and disembark. The nearest parking for coaches is Madingley Road Park and Ride.

Damage

Our contract stipulates that the summer school provider is responsible for any and all damage incurred by students. Damage should be reported as soon as possible to your event organiser, who will advise you of the charges once the issue has been reviewed.

We can cater for most dietary requirements if we are advised at least two weeks before your event. There may be a surcharge. All meals are prepared using the finest and freshest local produce and include seasonal herbs, vegetables and fruit from the College gardens wherever possible.

Prices are exclusive of VAT unless otherwise stated.

Deadlines

Your event organiser will contact you 2 weeks before your event start date to begin collating final details, including a complete alphabetical list of students and staff, any proposed speakers or teachers and the subject matter of their presentations, a programme or agenda and final numbers for accommodation and catering.

Decorations

Murray Edwards College is Grade II* listed building. Please do not decorate or put up signs without the consent of the Events Manager. The Events Department will put up signs to your event areas in appropriate sign holders.

Deposit

We will request that the majority of your estimated total cost to be paid in advance of your event by an initial non-refundable deposit and interim payments. Payment dates may be agreed with the Events Manager. You will then be invoiced for the final amount after the event.

Dietary requirements

We can cater for most dietary requirements providing we are advised in advance. Please let us know any dietary needs at least 2 weeks before your arrival date.

Halal catering

We are able to source Halal meat if advised in advance.

Kosher catering

Kosher food can be sourced from an external supplier and will be charged at cost. Please discuss this with your College contact.

Disabled access

If you have any guests who require support of any kind, please let us know as soon as possible or at least 2 weeks before your arrival date, so we can send a Personal Evacuation Evaluation Plan (PEEP) form or download one from www.murrayedwardsevents.co.uk/visitor-information/accessibility-statement.

Entertainment

Although most types of entertainment are acceptable at Murray Edwards, please do discuss this with us prior to your summer school.

External catering

We do not permit external catering at Murray Edwards. Our catering department would be pleased to work with you on a menu if you have specific requirements.

Fireworks

We are sorry but fireworks are not permitted.

Food and drink

Our catering team are delighted to provide a fantastic range of international-style cuisine, from curry to fish 'n' chips. The cafeteria receives great reviews from students and staff and in addition to main meals provides a variety of snacks and soft drinks. It is not permitted to bring your own food into College.

If you are planning a day out, we can provide packed lunches which usually consist of a sandwich, crisps, chocolate bar, piece of fruit and a bottle of water or can of juice.

We can provide BBQ lunches and dinners in our beautiful gardens.

If you would like a formal meal while you are here, this can be booked into a private dining room of a suitable size.

We are always interested to hear what ideas you have planned for your group activities and will be happy to help where we can. Meal arrangements outside of the package will carry an additional charge.

You may be given a specific meal time slot, depending on our other bookings. If you would like to determine this before you create your agenda, please ask your Event Organiser.

Gardens

Orchard Court garden can be used for activities but must be booked in advance alongside a wet weather back up room.

Students and staff are welcome to use the gardens on an informal basis but ball games are not permitted and the noise level must be respectful of others using the surrounding gardens, accommodation and meeting rooms.

Music is not permitted in the gardens after 9:00pm, unless you have prior written permission from the College Events Manager.

The gardens must be vacated by 10:00pm.

Gazebos

Gazebos may be used in the gardens. Please let us know if you wish to hire them and we will get a quote.

Internet access and Wi-Fi

Murray Edwards College agrees to provide wired and Wi-Fi Internet access to our guests on request, depending on location and available infrastructure. Please note that the College network has no content control or restrictions, meaning that inappropriate for age material can be accessed. The responsibility of supervising Internet access procured for those below the age of 18 remains with the summer school organiser and not with the College.

Marquees

Marquees may be used in Orchard Court garden, subject to some logistical factors. Again, please discuss your plans with us.

Music

If you are planning a disco night, amplified music including bands and DJs are permitted in the College bar and we have connections for Ipods and portable devices. The bar must be hired for events such as this. Hire charges are on page 2 of the price list.

Live music is only permitted by prior arrangement.

A PA system is available to hire.

Music is not permitted in the gardens after 9:00pm, unless you have prior written permission from the College Events Manager.

Outdoor games

Garden games such as giant Jenga and croquet are permitted. Some inflatables are also permitted. Please discuss any ideas with your event organiser.

Other events

Please note that there will be other events in College during your stay at Murray Edwards, although of course you will have exclusive access to the rooms you have booked.

The paths, corridors and general communal areas through College are in constant use and the gardens are open to tourists. Upon arrival, tourists will be advised by the Porters which areas they cannot access and the event organiser will also help to ensure that areas in use for your event remain exclusive to you and your guests.

Parking

Parking is only available by prior arrangement. Please see our website for maps and directions.

Room capacities

Please see page 2 of the price list.

We can cater for most dietary requirements if we are advised at least two weeks before your event. There may be a surcharge. All meals are prepared using the finest and freshest local produce and include seasonal herbs, vegetables and fruit from the College gardens wherever possible.
